2009 Membership and/or Horse Registration
San Jacinto Horse Show Association

1. Riders and owners must apply for membership annually. Horses/ponies must be registered annually. Annual membership is $15.00; annual horse/pony registration is $1.00.
2. To accumulate points toward year-end Equitation awards, riders must be members. Horses/ponies need not be registered for their riders to accumulate Equitation points.
3. To accumulate points toward year-end Hunter or Jumper awards, horses/ponies must be registered, and riders and owners must be members.
4. Horse/pony name change requires re-registration for points to follow. The fee is $1.00.
5. If a horse/pony is sold, the sale must be reported to SJHSA, and the new owner must re-register the horse/pony in order for points already accumulated to count. The fee is $1.00. The name may be changed at this time at no additional fee.
6. The annual membership/registration grace period ends April 1. Membership/registration applications received by the Membership/Points Secretary or postmarked on or before the grace period end date ensure points already earned will count toward year-end awards. For membership/registration applications received or postmarked after the grace period, points begin to accumulate on the date the application is received by the Membership/Points Secretary, or on the postmark date
7. Make checks payable to SJHSA. . Fees must accompany applications, and a non-negotiable check will invalidate the application. Give application and fees to show secretary or send to:
